Center Name Change Asked

Since the students are paying for the University Center should their name be on it?

In a loud and long discussion of that question, the Student Council finally agreed that indeed the building should be labeled with the word student.

So a proposal to change the name from University Center to University Student Center was approved by the Council and will be passed on to the proper University authorities.

In other action Thursday night, the Council:

1. Approved a $9,480 appropriation for Spring and summer operations of the Daily Egyptian.
2. Asked the University administration to put the entire ROTC program on a voluntary basis.

3. Heard a report on a voluntary program to give SIU coats living off campus protection against possible attacks.

Glen E. Zilmer, president of the Carbondale Chamber of Commerce, appeared at the meeting and asked the Council to recommend new recreation outlets which could be established for students in the city.

Zilmer said the Chamber will encourage finding a solution to the local traffic problem; getting street improvements; relocation of the Illinois Central Railroad tracks; and installation of new street signs, among other projects to improve the city.

Voting to Climax Session of U.N.

Climaxing the sixth annual Model United Nations Assembly tonight will be voting on resolutions concerning racial discrimination, refugee problems, nuclear disarmament and United Nations finance.

The 250 delegates will consider proposals prepared by committees at 1 p.m. at the University Center Ballroom.

Committee members were slated to meet this morning to formulate the suggestions.

Swim Meet Still on, Salukis Face Oklahoma Tonight

Southern's undefeated swimming team will meet the University of Oklahoma tonight at 8 as scheduled in the University School pool. Previously it had been incorrectly announced that the meet had been cancelled.

With three unbeaten performers in the lineup, the Salukis will be seeking their fifth victory against the Sooners. Led by Jack Schiltz, Thom McAnaney and Dave Winfield, SIU has captured 35 of a possible 44 events this season. Schiltz and Winfield each have four blue ribbons to their credit as the former is undefeated in the 200-yard individual medley and Winfield in the 200-yard butterfly.

McAnaney has collected eight firsts including one in the 50-yard freestyle, three in the 200-yard freestyle and four in the 500-yard freestyle events.

A.G. Edwards will be seeking his fifth win of the season in the diving event. Edwards, who hasn't been diving long, has dropped only one match this year.

Foreign Cultures Highlighted In International Night at 8

International Night tonight and tomorrow will certainly be international!

Not only will the numerous displays and exhibits be set up to characterize the culture in different nations, the four stage shows, coffee house and delegates will all be typical of other countries.

For example, the stage shows will feature acts from the Philippines, Arabia, India, Viet Nam, Jamaica, China, Mexico and Latin America. They will be presented at 8 and 9:30 p.m. today and 3 and 7:30 p.m. tomorrow.

Coffee served at the coffee house won't even faintly resemble the typical American brew.

Drinks will include Italian coffee (milk, coffee, whipped cream, grated orange peel, nutmeg), Hot Mocha Java (coffee, hot cocoa, marshmallow), Riman coffee (strong coffee, lemon peel), and Arabian coffee (very strong coffee).

Also Russian tea (tea cloves, lemon juice, grape juice, cinnamon, orange juice, sugar), Mexican chocolate (hot chocolate, orange juice, coffee, whipped cream, cinnamon), Irish Coffee (coffee, brandy extract, whipped cream, sugar) and Chinese Tea.

This is only a sample of the wide variety of international items to be on display say co-chairmen Alan Comstock and Warren Steinborn.

International Night, climaxing the sixth Model United Nations Assembly, will be in the University Center Ballroom.

Bus to St. Louis Leaving at 11:15

The Student Activities Bus to St. Louis for the play "Who's Afraid of Virginia Woolf" will leave the University Center at 11:15 a.m. Saturday.

Previously it had been announced that the bus would leave the Center at 5 p.m.

SIU Ends Winning Streak, To Play at Evansville Tonight

By Alan Goldfarb

Ohio Central snapped Southern's seven game winning streak here last night in a closely contested defensive game, 71-67.

The loss, which puts the Salukis at an 11-7 clip going into tonight's game at Evansville, marked the first time the Salukis were beaten in the Men's Gym in 35 outings. SIU's last loss on its home court was in February of 1960.

The Salukis played nip and tuck with the Marauders until the strong Ohio quintet put the game on ice in the last two minutes of play. The game was tied no less than eight times.

Joe Ramsey led the Salukis once again with Duane Warning chipping in for 16 points. The Marauders had a well balanced attack with four players in double figures. Ted Day led the output with 14 points.

The Salukis, who lost the game on the Marauders' offensive board, were probably hurting more due to the loss of mainstay Paul Henry in the backline. Henry was suited up, but did not see any action due to a sprained ankle.

In the first half, the Marauders played a slow-deliberate style of basketball as the Salukis' tight defense tied the Marauders up. Central took the lead right away and held a five point margin--largest lead for both teams--until the Salukis tied it up at 15-15 with 11 minutes left in the first stanza.

SIU then reeled off five straight points but didn't hold it long as the Marauders took over to stay until the intermission.

The second half was the same with the Marauders and Salukis exchanging baskets and the lead until the waning minutes when Day hit four straight foul shots to put the game on ice for the Marauders.

The Marauders shot for a .431 percentage on the strength of 28 field goals in only 65 attempts. The Salukis were a shade behind with a .412 clip on 26 buckets out of just 63 attempts. The Marauders dominated both boards, in fact, with 46 grabs compared to Southern's 28 rebounds.

Southern's freshman team got revenge in the preliminary game by downing Murray State 77-68. Walt Frazier topped all scorers with 26 points.

Theta Xi Variety Show M.C. Is Veteran of Stage, Screen

The St. Louis disc jockey who will be master of ceremonies at the annual Theta Xi Variety Show at SIU Feb. 28 and 29 has also worked in stage and screen productions.

Jim Burke, who hosts "The Jim Burke Show" on KSD-Radio, has performed in several television shows, a movie and the New York stage.

He played in both the stage and movie versions of "Winged Victory" and also took part in various radio network dramas.

Director of special events at KMBC in Kansas City, Mo., for 10 years, Burke traveled to California to broadcast news in Los Angeles. While in Hollywood he also portrayed roles on several television shows.

Termed one of radio's newest "music men," Burke has been on the KSD staff for four years.

'Pop' Artist Combines Toothbrush, Comics, Screen for $4,000 Pictures

The avant-garde of "pop" art will present lectures and work with art students next week on the SIU campus.

Forty-year-old Roy Lichtenstein, who sells his paintings for $4,000 each, has been blowing up comic strips, then dotting his canvas to create some of the most controversial paintings in the field of art today.

His technique is to make an enormous sketch, cover it with a metal screen and rub paint through the screen with a toothbrush. The finished product resembles the photoengraver dots which are easily detected on photographs printed on low-grade newsprint.

Lichtenstein has been working with ideas from comic books for about three years.

To Hear Wegner

"The Concept of the World in Old Testament Times" will be Walter Wegner's topic at a dinner for Lutheran students Sunday.

The dinner will begin at 6 p.m. in Our Savior Lutheran Church, 501 W. Main St.

Previously he concentrated on 19th century Americana, painting cowboys and Indians in modern art styles.

Museum officials and collectors have termed his art as "fascinating, forceful" and "starkly beautiful."

Lichtenstein, who has been criticized for his unique approach to art, said "it is a challenge to try to make art out of 'non-art.'" Lichtenstein says he tries to keep his work close to the original sketch because then it is more forceful and more threatening.

He and Allan Kaprow, who received wide recognition for his "Happenings," will arrive Monday and leave Friday.

Lecture times and places will be announced later by the Department of Art.

Two Dances, Three Parties Top Weekend Social Calendar

Numerous dances and exchange parties are scheduled for student activities this weekend.

Pierce Hall Second will hold a date dance from 8:30-12 Saturday night in Pierce Hall.

Students will also be able to kick up their heels in the University Center that night when the "Sting Rays" provide the music for the "International Night" dance from 8:30-12.

Several exchange parties are also on the agenda. Washington Square Dorm and Woody Hall will hold an exchange. Abbott Hall Second will provide the entertainment Sunday night when they host an exchange at the dorm from 8-10:30.

To round out the weekend, Alpha Gamma Delta social sorority will have a chili supper from 5-7:30 Sunday night at 104 Small Group Housing.

Girl Cuts Wrists,

Taken to Hospital

A 19-year-old transfer student slashed her wrists in the third-floor rest room in Morris Library Thursday and was taken to Doctors Hospital.

She was reported in "very good" condition.

A Security Police spokesman said the girl apparently cut herself while on the third floor and walked down to the second. She got on the elevator, intending to go down to the first floor, but the elevator went up to the sixth floor, where a student worker got on.

The student worker said that when the elevator reached the first floor, she called two male library workers who took charge of the bleeding student.

STOCK ROOM CLERK RON LITTLE INSPECTS A REAGENT TO MAKE SURE IT'S QUALITY BEFORE IT'S USED IN EXPERIMENTS.

DR. MELVIN D. HOUSTON, SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION, SPEAKS TO A GROUP OF STUDENTS IN A LECTURE HALL.

The SIU Chemistry Major

Text and Photos / Walt Waschick

His is the land of precise measures, precise weights, exotic odors, and super cleanliness. His territory is SIU's Chemistry Department.

To the chemistry major, grams, molecules, centrifuge, and moles are everyday language. Mathematics is one thing of fascination to be taken once and then forgotten; it is an everyday tool.

His major is no snap. No one will disagree. It requires intense study and long hours of work in laboratories. In courses above the freshman level, students spend a minimum of three hours per week with lab work for every one hour of credit. In even more advanced courses, five hours per experiment is a good average.

Chemistry is the science of substances—their properties, their composition, and the changes which they undergo. Boil and bubble; why? Change in substance; why? Change in weight, in color, in form; why? The chemistry major must know or find out the answers.

LAB INSTRUCTOR DON EXPLAIN POINTS TO NORMAN PENCE.

DR. MELVIN D. HOUSTON GESTURES TO TWO STUDENTS POINTING TO AN OXIDIZED GLASS.

The instruments of chemistry are precise, for chemistry is a precise and exact science. Scales accurate to a 40 millionth of a pound are in use at SIU.

An error of as much as the weight of a hairpin can affect the success of an experiment. Instruments must also be clean—super clean; dirt affects reactions. Be precise, be precise.

Chemistry majors are motivated by intense interest in their field. They are motivated by unanswered questions. Prospects for employment after graduation are bright, and starting salaries are high.

With a Bachelor's degree, starting salaries are as high as $575 per month. Holders of doctor's degrees may start as high as $775 per month.

Housed in the Parkinson Laboratory Building, the Chemistry Department has about 150 majors and 35 graduate students. A relatively high percentage of chemistry majors go on for an advanced degree. Faculty members number 15.

Island Hot Spots Brewing Trouble for U.S.

Compiled From Associated Press

Island hot spots—Cuba and Cyprus—fomented trouble for the United States this week.

Cuba's Premier Castro cut off the water supply to the U.S. naval base at Guantanamo Bay Thursday, and President Johnson announced a few hours later that the United States had known all along that it couldn't count on Cuba for water.

In addition to the safeguard of a 12 days' supply of water on the island, the Navy was prepared to haul water from Port Everglades, Fla., as long as necessary, Johnson said.

Cuba cut off the water to the base—nicknamed "Gitmo"—in an attempt to force the release of 36 Cuban fishermen held by Florida authorities. Cuba said the fishermen had been seized in international waters, but the United States rejected that claim. It said the Cubans were within 1 1/2 miles of U.S. territory when taken by the U.S. Coast Guard.

President Johnson said there was no doubt that the fishermen were inside U.S. territorial waters because just before the fishing vessels were intercepted their captains reported by radio to Havana that they were in U.S. waters.

"Gitmo" has been receiving two million gallons a day from the Cuban pumping station about 4.7

LePelley, Christian Science Monitor

to keep the peace and ease tensions between the rival communities while diplomats work toward a settlement in London.

Still at issue is the British-American plan for dispatch to Cyprus of a peace-keeping army of 10,000 to be recruited from members of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

Heading back to New York from an African tour, U.N. Secretary-General U Thant told newsmen in Tunis the Security Council should take up the Cyprus crisis because all other efforts to solve it have failed.

Cyprus President Archbishop Makarios has made plain he wants any international army on Cyprus to be under the United Nations.

U.S. and British authorities oppose Security Council intervention in the belief it might give the Soviet Union a voice in the future of Cyprus, a member of the British Commonwealth.

'War on Poverty' Program Dealt Setback

WASHINGTON—President Johnson's "war on poverty" suffered a reversal Tuesday when the House Agriculture Committee voted to pigeon-hole his expanded food-stamp plan for needy families.

Johnson had made the expanded program a key part of his agriculture message to Congress, tying it directly to "our war on poverty."

Bobby Baker Stereo Is Music to GOP Ears

The Senate Rules Committee investigation of Bobby Baker's financial dealings is likely to result in more than a juicy campaign issue for the GOP.

Widespread demand for Congressional conflict-of-interest rules may be a by-product of the Capitol Hill scandal which seems to have mushroomed beyond the control of the Senators who had hoped to keep their cautious inquiry an intramural affair.

Most Congressmen would just as soon forget about conflict-of-interest regulations—for financial reasons of their own.

And the waves from Bobby Baker's affluent splash on the Washington scene might spread too far and touch upon too many people in high places.

Baker was secretary of the Senate majority before a disclosure of outside business interests resulted in his resignation Oct. 7.

The former Senate page from Pickens, S.C., built up a fortune of more than $2 million in assets over a period less than nine years time. His Capitol Hill office was headquarters for all sorts of financial wheeling and dealing, much of which

Ranger Hits Moon

This was the week that was—almost.

It might have been the most rewarding for the United States since the beginning of the space race. The big glory slipped away, however, when a television camera failed to turn on at the proper time.

The week started spectacularly, as the United States took a giant step ahead of the Russians by orbiting a Saturn rocket carrying the heaviest payload ever lofted from earth. That success and the Ranger 6 moon rocket launch later in the week raised hopes for the most productive week yet in this nation's space program.

Ranger 6, however, was destined for the same fate as its five sister ships—breakdown and failure. Although the rocket did hit the moon as it was supposed to, two television cameras on board, set to send invaluable pictures of the lunar surface back to earth, failed to function.

Sanders, Kansas City Star

"IT MATTERS NOT THE SKINS AND BRUISES, BUT THAT YOU PLAYED THE GAME."

The bill was voted down 19 to 14, with five southern Democrats and all 14 Republican members against it.

Rep. Harlan Hagen, D-Calif., main backer of the bill in the committee, said the defeat is an ominous forecast of the reception likely for other agriculture bills of the administration.

Skater's Goal: Barber Pole

INNSBRUCK, Austria--The brightest spot for the United States in the current Winter Olympic Games was the skating victory of a Michigan apprentice barber who won the only U.S. gold medal.

Terry McDermott, 23, of Essexville, Mich., surprised nearly everyone when he beat the Soviet champion, Yevgeny Grishin, in the 500-meter dash in record time.

McDermott's next goal is less glamorous. He wants to get his barbering license.

His chances appear good. At Bunny's Barber Shop, where McDermott trims the customers in chair No. 3, he is slick with the clippers too.

"Terry's a very good barber," according to John Krosiak, manager of the shop.

Flight From Terror

On the Mediterranean island of Cyprus, a wave of terrorism hit Tuesday. The U.S. Embassy was bombed and two American-owned automobiles were burned.

The U.S. embassy said the violence resulted from "an organized campaign in the Greek Cypriot press against the United States."

A one-day, emergency airlift of U.S. dependents on the island took 572 women and children to Beirut, Lebanon. More than half of the 1,200 dependents decided to stay.

Greek and Turkish Cypriots violated a cease-fire Wednesday with a five-hour battle among the mosques at Paphos on the southwestern coast. Three Turkish Cypriots were reported killed.

Violence hit the island anew on Thursday when seven Turks and four Greeks were killed and a Turkish village was burned in a six-hour gunfight south of Nicosia, the capital.

British troops stepped in to restore peace.

The action was the worst flareup of intercommunal fighting since virtual civil war broke out between the Greek Cypriots and the island's Turkish minority in the Christmas holiday period.

On Heels of Central Game

SIU Meets Top-Ranked Evansville

After meeting Ohio Central last night, Southern's cagers will see action for the second night in a row when they face the number one small college five in the nation, Evansville at Roberts Stadium in Evansville.

How much the two-game stint will affect the play of the Salukis will be determined at tip-off time which will be aired over WSIU-FM at 8 p.m.

The Purple Aces rule the Associated Press's number one spot for the third week in a row on the strength of a 14-3 season's record.

Among the Aces' 14 victims have been major college foes New Mexico State, Arizona, Columbia and a Big Ten member, Purdue.

Kentucky Wesleyan, victor over the Salukis by 13 points earlier in the season, lost by the same margin to Evansville.

The Aces have a big team that is well balanced with no set starting lineup. Jerry Sloan, whom southern Illinois prep fans will remember from McLeansboro, paces the Aces in the scoring department. Sloan is a rather large (6-6) guard. He will be backed up by Buster Briley, 6-4, at the other backline spot.

Larry Humes, 6-4, and Sam Walkins, 6-3, will probably get the nod at the forward spots with big 6-8 Ed Zausch mannng the boards at the center slot.

The Salukis, who will be faced with their third straight rough game after seven straight comparatively easy contests, will probably go with the same starting lineup they've been employing most of the year.

Joe Ramsey (14.8) and either Duane Warning (10.4) or Randy Goin (6.1) will start at forward. Lloyd Stovall (9.9) at center

Referee Struck, Player Banned

The Office of Student Affairs has recommended that a 20-year-old Centralia junior not be allowed to participate in intramurals because he struck a referee.

The offending student was held responsible for $17.50 hospital costs, $7.50 for the shirt and $12.50 for the glasses.

★ Jerry DeMuth, SIU graduate and for the last two years field worker with the American Friends Service Committee, will speak at the Channing Club at 6:30 p.m. Sunday in the Unitarian Meeting House at Elm and University.

will have his work cut out for him against the 6-8 Zausch.

Eldon Bigham (7.1) and Paul Henry (11.8) or Dave Lee (9.6) will be at the guard spots. If Henry is fully recovered from an ankle injury sustained earlier in the week, he'll probably draw the assignment of guarding Sloan.

The Saluki freshman team will play the Evansville frosh in the preliminary. It will be their second meeting of the season; the SIU frosh won the first.

4 Vietnamese Killed, 5 GIs Hurt in Blast

SAIGON, South Viet Nam--A bomb attributed to Communist terrorists killed four Vietnamese on Friday night and wounded 39 other persons, including five U.S. servicemen, in a Saigon bar that has drawn regular American patronage.

The blast demolished the bar, called the Playboy, and broke windows blocks away. Witnesses said a service bar girl was blown to bits. Two men and a boy were the others killed. The Playboy is on a street behind a big hotel for U.S. enlisted men.

Identification of the American casualties was withheld.

The bombing was one in a series of attacks on American installations and Vietnamese establishments popular among Americans in Viet Nam, who are aiding in a war against the Communist Viet Cong. A U.S. Air Force demolitions expert was killed while trying to disarm a bomb found at another Saigon bar last week-end.

In the warfare afield five strategic hamlets seized by a 500-man Communist battalion Thursday are back, battered and burned, under government control. Vietnamese troops occupied them uneventfully. The Reds had departed, unhindered, in the night.

A U.S. military spokesman denounced the guerrillas for keeping 4,000 civilians penned up with them during government shelling, bombing and ineffective ground assaults to recover the group of hamlets, 40 miles northwest of Saigon. He called such use of hostages reprehensible.

An undisclosed number of civilians were found dead and others wounded from the counterattack, which set fire to flimsy thatched homes and storehouses.

Despite the size of the operation, casualties among combatants seemed small. Viet Cong dead were believed to total 10 or so and government dead fewer than 30.

American officers were puzzled by the fact that Vietnamese army activity virtually stopped at dusk Thursday, after six companies were strung out in front of the Communist positions.

Mistrial Declared In Beckwith Case

JACKSON, Miss.--A mistrial was declared Friday in the trial of Byron De La Beckwith, a crusading segregationist charged with murdering a Negro civil rights leader.

Circuit Court Judge Leon Hendrick declared the mistrial after the all-white jury, called for individual polling at the end of about 12 hours deliberation, declared themselves hopelessly deadlocked. Beckwith was remanded to the sheriff's custody.

Beckwith, a 43-year-old fertilizer salesman from Greenwood, Miss., was charged with shooting Medgar Evers in the back with a high-powered rifle. Evers was state field secretary for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

No immediate date was set for the retrial. The next term of Circuit Court opens in March.

$11.6 Billion Tax Cut Passes Senate, Goes to Conference

WASHINGTON - The Senate passed the $11.6 billion tax cut bill Friday, slashing income levies for 80 million individuals and 550,000 corporate taxpayers.

The final vote came after seven days of floor debate in which the administration won every key test.

The bill, at the top of President Johnson's 1964 legislative list along with civil rights, is the keystone of his entire economic program.

The measure now goes to conference with the House, which passed a slightly less far-reaching $11.1 billion version last Sept. 25.

The Senate turned down 57-39 a proposed amendment to wipe out the present tax benefits of the stock option privilege for corporation executives.

Civil Rights Bill Passage Is Near

WASHINGTON--The House moves into the final stages of the civil rights fight today.

Rep. Howard W. Smith, D-Va., leader of the Southern forces opposing the bill, served warning Friday that delaying tactics may be resorted to if efforts are made to cut off debate.

Smith sounded the warning after minority leader Charles A. Halleck, R-Ind., sought approval for the House to meet today so a final vote can be taken by tonight.
